Ancient Messini at a distance of 30 km from Kalamata, is one of the most important excavated cities of Greece. The ancient city is well preserved since it was never destroyed or covered by a newer settlement. Inside the archaeological site the visitor will find sanctuaries, public buildings, houses, fortifications and funerary monuments. The archaeological site of Mycenae is the imposing ruins of the one greatest city of the Mycenaean civilization. The city is indissolubly linked to the Homeric epics, the Iliad and the Odyssey. Nafplio is a very beautiful seaport town in the Peloponnese, the official capital of Greece in 1829. Spetses, an island boasting a long naval tradition, is famous for its significant contribution to the 1821 War of Independence. The rich history and naval tradition of the island is reflected on numerous sites that are definitely worth visiting. Hydra is one of the Saronic Islands of Greece, located in the Aegean Sea between the Saronic Gulf and the Argolic Gulf. The Ancient Theatre at the Asklepieion of Epidaurus is the finest and most renowned of its kind, which combines perfect acoustics with elegance and symmetrical proportions. Nemea is a town that combines vineyards with famous wine and the archaeological site
